PLEASE NOTE

The University of Leicester is fully committed to its environmental policy. With this in mind we would encourage you and your delegates to use public transport in the first instance. Should this not be possible complimentary car parking is available wherever possible on site (areas marked 'P') and in the event that you do travel by car we would ask that you car share wherever possible. On arrival should you find the parking near your intended hall/accommodation area is full, please use one of the other available car parks and refrain from parking on public roads.
